NIXON: Errand Boy Cum Laude — For Occult Powers

From Taipei, Republic of China, comes the following message from a contact high in the government of Chiang Kai Shek and an expert in Far East affairs, Sino-Soviet relations, and East-West developments:

"Years ago, a certain gentleman made a bold, spectacular and far-reaching move which was widely approved by his contemporary compatriots. For a small monetary compensation, he sold his friends to the powerful elite of bankers and politicians, but, alas, he did not live long to enjoy his fame and the fruits of his deed.

"Following in the steps of his famous predecessor, Mr. Nixon sold his friends to exactly the same elite, but, naturally enough, for a much higher sum. He is also praised and applauded from all sides, but will he be able to reap the profits of this deal?

"That is the question.

"But, quite obviously, Mr. Richard Nixon already secured an honorable place for himself in history only a little bit below that which is occupied by Mr. Judas Iscariot." (End of quote)

The above message reads loud and clear. It needs no further comment. It had better be remembered in 1972.

Tricky Dicky Nixon out-did himself. With his Peking ploy, he pulled off the sneakiest trick ever achieved by an American president. In the process, and while ignoring public opinion as if it didn't exist, he sacrificed our national honor on the altar of expediency. Not on behalf of the welfare and security of the Nation and of the American people, nor for the sake of world peace, but for the welfare and security of occult powers who own him lock, stock and barrel, who hold our Nation in hock, and who are responsible for the present breakdown in the order of things throughout the West.

Nixon's bosses are the cabal of international investment bankers housed in New York and linked up with like ilk in London, Frankfurt, Paris, Vienna, Rome, Basel, and elsewhere. This network, owning outright the currencies and economies of the countries in which they operate, has one objective: a totalitarian, world super-government to be ruled over by them. Meanwhile every ism known to Man has been let loose upon the unsuspecting masses of the West in order to expedite their pliability as bearers of water and hewers of wood. Nixon is a One Worlder. So is almost every top man in his administration, including Kissinger, upon whom we must depend for what is erroneously called our "national security." Thus, all are puppets of this evil Synagogue of Satan. We, the people, are the victims. Red China has reached the point where she must come out into the open. To make this look on the up and up, Kissinger was sent over to feel out the lay of the land. Then, Nixon was ordered to go to Peking with a bagful of carrots. On the surface, we are supposed to believe that the mission is for world peace and, perhaps, an end to the war in South Vietnam. It is neither.

The stakes in this game are so high that the integrity of the Republic of China doesn't mean a thing. Whether she sinks or swims, or gets kicked out of the United Nations, doesn't matter in the least. Our national honor doesn't count, either. What the MONEY POWER demands comes first and that is all that counts in this filthy game. And, it seems to be this: Stalin evidently double-crossed the Synagogue of Satan once he milked out of them what he wanted. His successors, all proteges of his, are continuing the same policy. It is BRUTE FORCE vs. MONEY POWER in a showdown. This was demonstrated in Czechoslovakia. At that time, the MONEY POWER tried to retaliate for the double-cross. They got flattened by Marshal

Grechko. Since then, the Soviet Union is riding high, wide and handsome on her own. The only counter-force to such lack of respect is Red China. So, it is gung ho to get Red China set up as a buffer against, and as a military threat to, the Soviet Union. In the meantime, hoping that the Kremlin will experience a change of heart, Washington has been ordered to lick boots. Nixon is the errand boy to deliver the message to Peking, and whether he goes or not, the trick will work . . . maybe.

Red China and the Soviet may not be sitting together in the same pew, but they happen to be in the same Church. Neither is stupid not to realize that, together they're unbeatable, separated they are. So, being dyed-in-the-wool pragmatists, and not mental castrates like we have down in Washington, it is not unreasonable to assume that, once Red China gets the carrots, she, too, will double-cross the international money changers. That is when we better duck, for the bombs will begin whistling a devilish tune.

If the Synagogue of Satan can't have its way with the world, they would rather see it blown to bits. Where the members of this satanic combo will be hiding at that time, is a Luciferian secret of state, of course. But, if Red China should join the Soviet Union in a joint double-cross, the West is going to be egged on into a war with the East.

It will be Armageddon.

In everything that's bad, there is always something good. The least we can say about Nixon's incredible gambit is that, by trying to pull it off even at the risk of being evicted from the White House, the MONEY POWER has come out into the open. Like snakes crawling out from under the rocks in broad daylight, they're identifiable. There can no longer be any doubts. To be sure, trying to look elsewhere for our real enemy, would be like playing ostrichism while the roof is burning.

The MONEY POWER is evil personified. This syndicate already owns most of the world's assets and, now, is ready to grab the rest of it. It is also out to corral us all as 'slaves to exploit the earth's riches. In this diabolical effort they are being assisted by dupes, hopeless do-gooders, mental castrates, woebegone misfits, and the scientific-intellectual community. They've got everything going for them. We've got nothing. We've just about had it.

We're pressurized from the top and from the bottom. Not being able to cope, we are a nation on pills to avoid a whopping nervous breakdown. If this doesn't do us in, the MONEY POWER will turn the screw tighter. While forcing us to live in terror under an atomic Sword of Damocles, they're going to scare us out of our wits with this ecological thing, the population explosion, and the threat of worldwide famine. When we've been properly softened up, then they will tell us that the only solution to all our problems will be to agree to a one world community. We will. When we do, then they will decide, first of all, that, inasmuch as our world monetary system is obsolete and too cumbersome, it would be best to have only one currency. It will be a number. Those who will get a number, will be able to survive. Those who don't get one, will die. In the meantime, every cent in your name will be wiped out as worthless at the stroke of a pen, and to make room for the new monetary system. Once it is in, we've had it for good.

As part and parcel of this satanic bid for world dominance, Nixon has earned his thirty pieces of silver.

Book Review

Readers of COMMON SENSE already know that fabulously rich men are and always have been the principal financial backers of World Communism. Even so, they might pick up some new information from W. Cleon Skousen's book THE NAKED CAPITALIST. This book neatly summarizes the operations of the CFR, the Pugwash conferences, and the relationship between International Capitalism and the Left Wing. Long ago, Grandpa and Grandma feared a "proletarian revolution." They had visions of dirty working stiffs swarming into pleasant middle class neighborhoods to plant the Red Flag atop the police station. All this was utter drivel, of course. There is no proletarian revolution, never has been any proletarian revolution, never will be any proletarian revolution. There is only a POWER ESTABLISHMENT which is world-wide and which chooses to hide itself behind manufactured mythologies, of which Marxism is only one. THE NAKED CAPITALIST is a good primer of this operation.

On page 8 Skousen asks, "Is this a Jewish Conspiracy?" He concludes that it is not; the International Capitalists who secretly support Communism are a polyglot crowd. We do not think Skousen's explanation quite adequate on this subject. The ideologies of the Internationalists have been manufactured mostly by apostate Jews who in the Nineteenth Century created a new kind of "Jewishness" based upon Marxism and Zionism. It is the Jewish social instinct rather than the Jewish religion which gave the Jews their "Intellectual Supremacy" in this field.

Conservatives will be interested in reading of how the Bank of England developed and served as a forerunner of the American Federal Reserve Bank. Skousen's clear-cut explanations are simple and to the point, and should be understandable to everyone. Indeed, Skousen has written a good, plain primer describing the structure of the power which rules most of the world today. There are more complex and brilliant books, such as Spengler's DECLINE OF THE WEST. There are more sophisticated books such as Chesterton's NEW UNHAPPY LORDS. There are few which tell in such a simple, straightforward way just how economic and political power are exercised in the so-called "Free World" today.

The brilliant power machine which Skousen describes is probably in its last days. It is not threatened by Communism. It owns Communism. It is rather threatened by the blind, black Paganism and reactionism and militarism which are rising in the Eastern Hemisphere today. The men who run the brilliant world of international finance have drifted too far from the basic realities. The one great reality of history is the MILITARY reality. This is the power which will destroy the men described by Skousen in this book. The men of the CFR and the Bilderberg Group and the Pugwash Conferences are men of the past rather than men of the future. Still, anyone who wants to understand the world crisis needs to understand them, and this is a pretty good primer about them and their system.
